this Chevrolet 2-door Sedan Cost
$1795.00

COMPARE the Chevrolet of seven years ago with the Chevrolet of today and realize how radically Chevrolet has revised all conceptions of motor car value.

In 1920, the Chevrolet illustrated here represented the highest standards of quality and value at a price of $1795 (f.o.b. Oshawa) over a thousand dollars more than you pay today for a Chevrolet that possesses style, luxury and refinement unthought-of in any car a few years ago.

In following its fundamental policy of constant improvement, Chevrolet has built up a production volume which places it first among all cars in the world. And Chevrolet has shared the savings of volume purchasing and production, with the public by reducing the prices of Chevrolet.

So, today, you get a Chevrolet with amazing QUALITY in its every detail at a fraction of the cost of a similar model Chevrolet of seven years ago.

THE BASSANO MAIL

Wallace J. Smith
Editor and Publisher

Subscription 12.00 a year, $2.00 to the United States

Everything goes faster nowadays, including the post office.

The mail shall inherit the earth, but if they stay that way they won't keep it very long.

People used to go to church, but now they only expect to be carried there by six gentlemen with bared heads.

H. W. Wood says that Alberta will this year reap a bumper harvest.
That's what we have been suspecting for some time.

Big buffalo coats were presented to the two princes and premier Baldwin on their arrival in Calgary. It is to be hoped that distinguished visitors will now be able to keep warm during their stay in Alberta.

THE GEM RAILWAY

Now that the Rosemary Northern Branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway is being built, the people of Gem are looking forward to the opening of this long promised road.

Many of them settled in the colony years ago with the belief that in a short time they would have a shipping point within a few miles from which they could make a living on the produce. The absence of this facility and the necessity of making long hulls has been a deterrent to the progress of the district.

For years the young of the railway have worked hard to will the expenditure. The men of the colony called it the "Open railway," and each year brought hopes that it would be built.

The question is, how is it to be realized? It will mean another step forward in the progress and prosperity of the community.

THE PASSING OF PARTY GOVERNMENT

It is to be hoped that the Hon. F. L. Lytton will be the last to leave. His government was a legislative body composed of men having no party ties, functioning as a board of directors, he voted a belief that is becoming more and more common among the thinking men of the country.

Party politics have no place in the election of a municipal or town council. The members of these bodies are elected upon their personal merit or popularity. There is no party or party creed. Each member is a free and independent thinker, free from party influence.

The same type of government should manage the business affairs of the province. The work of the provincial government differs from the work of the municipal government in extent and degree, but there is little difference in the kind of political management that could not be more efficiently handled by a body of non-party legislators than by party manipulation.

A non-party government is an ideal that may never be realized, but there is a distinct leaning in that direction, and one day it may come.

ONLY HALF U. S. WOMEN ELECTORS USE BALLOT

If Canada should have a statement of the part played by women in politics one wonders how it would compare with the survey of the American situation, which has just been issued at Washington.

According to the statement of the United States, which is equally divided, 49 per cent women and 61 per cent men, although the statistician maintains that while from 60 to 70 per cent of the eligible male voters record ballots, only 35 to 45 per cent of the women take advantage of their right to vote.

It is to be hoped that the argument that so far no great moral issue has been presented to the women on which they would be united and in which they would most likely be interested for their consideration.
The national equal suffrage movement was not successful because the national equal suffrage amendment was placed on the statute books.

So far there has been no indication of sex cleavage in elections, while women certainly have not yet achieved that stage of the political process in which the women elected to the House of Representatives are filled seats previously held by their husbands. Two women have been elected as governors of states, while among large cities Seattle boasts of having a woman mayor.

A common printer discovered electricity with two sticks and a silk handkerchief, probably having borrowed the latter.

KITTY OF COLEBANE

(Edward Tynsham)
A beautiful Kitty one morning was tripping

With a pitcher of milk from the farm, following the milkman.

When she saw me she stumbled, the pitcher it tumbled,
And all the sweet, buttermilk watered the plain.

Or what shall I do now, twas looking at you now,

Sure, such a pitcher I'll never meet again.

Two's the pride of my dairy, O.
Barney McLeary.

You're gone as a plague to the girls of Colebane.

I sat down beside her and gently did chide her,

That such a misfortune should give her such pain.

A kind of I gather her—before I did her part.

She vowed for such pleasure she'd break it again.

Two's my making season, I can't tell the reason,

Misfortune never come single,

That's that's plain,

For, very soon after poor Kitty's disaster,

The devil a pitcher was whole in Colebane.

The rich man's son inherits lands, And gives of brick and stone and gold,

And he inherits soft white hands,

And tender flesh that fears the cold,

Nor dares to wear a garment old;

A heritage, it seems to me,

One scarce would wish to hold in James Russell Lowell!

HORSES FOR SOVIET

SHIPPED EAST

Completing the first load, a train left Alberta during the past week for Quebec carrying 269 head of horses purchased in the province by officials of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. Included in the cargo from Quebec was also 26 horses previously shipped east, bringing the total of horses purchased by the Russian government in Alberta during the past month up to 567. It is expected that buying for further shipments will again commence at points in the south and southeast of the province on August 8.

Speaking of these short skir-

Ontario Grain Pool Launched; First Deliveries Are Made

WINNIPEG, Aug. 10.—J. O. Daley, grain accountant of the Manitoba Cooperative Wheat Producers, Ltd., returned Monday from Toronto where he assisted in the organization of the Ontario Grain Pool. Mr. Daley's work was the formation of a grain accounting system for the new body.

During his stay in Toronto the membership in the newly formed pool jumped from 7500 to approximately 9000, with new admissions daily. The farmers of Ontario expressed enthusiasm with the formation of their pool and there was every indication that the organization would have a sound and steady growth, Mr. Daley said. The first deliveries were in the new body. In the eastern provinces too had as yet been organized by the pool, but there was a strong demand from outside areas for pool representation also.

The first deliveries of pool grain by members were made recently and the crop movement was well under way in the next 10 days. Farmers are preparing to harvest their wheat. The grain is beginning to ripen. No frost is reported yet although it was very near the freezing point Sunday night.

THOUSANDS OF NEWCOMERS SETTLE ON LAND IN NORTHERN PART OF ALBERTA

Since January 1 last a total of 4079 new settlers registered in Edmonton and were abroad in the district up to and including July 31. The figures for the first six months of 1927 were January, 1; February, 68; March, 1264; April, 1168; May, 475; June, 1.

New immigrants registering at the Immigration Hall, Edmonton, during July totalled 358, according to figures compiled by immigration Agent E. E. Wilson.

This figure is considerably lower than the corresponding month of 1926, when 540 registered. Even with the drop, the July figures are in excess of the average for the month, which is scarcely ever below 300. The As the rush season for immigrants has now well off toward the end of July. May the balance of the year is quiet, but this year the numbers have kept up very satisfactorily.

Homestead filings for July totalled 142, which is slightly above the average of 132, and is the highest number for a month compiled by the local Dominion lands office. In the corresponding month last year there were 192 homesteads and 11 soldier grants filed.

Filings for the last week of the month totalled 10, which is well above the average of 8 grants, while for the corresponding period last year 50 homesteads and no soldier grants were filed.

In June of this year, which was the highest June of any year since 1914, there were 187 homesteads and 11 soldier grants filed, while in 1926 which had previously held the record for that month, there were 192 homesteads and 8 grants.

BEAVER TRAPPING BANNED IN NORTH

It has been announced by the provincial game branch that no trapping of beaver in the northern part of the province will be permitted during the coming season, and that the closed season for beaver which has been enforced in this area for the past 20 years will continue for coming fall and winter, as the beaver supply in the northern part of the province is rapidly becoming less. South of the line of townships 49 permits will be issued as usual in cases where found desirable through damage to farm property by local colonies of beaver.

ALBERTA DEATH RATE LOW

Alberta has the third lowest death rate among the provinces of the Dominion, and the lowest death rate for 1926. The rates by provinces are as follows: Saskatchewan, 7.4 per thousand; Manitoba, 8.2; Alberta, 8.5; British Columbia, 9.6; Prince Edward Island, 10.1; Ontario, 11.4; Nova Scotia, 11.6; New Brunswick, 12.2; Quebec, 14.5. The rate in Alberta, it is stated, is increased to some extent by the death of tubercular patients who come to this province for their health.

POLO PONIES

CALGARY—A thriving new industry in Southern Alberta, which is making progress there, is that of raising and training polo ponies. The ranches are engaged exclusively in this industry, and ranches and farmers are coming to engage in it as a side line. New Bill Contains Restrictions Which Will Benefit the Public

It is now certain that Parliament has passed the British House of Commons and is now before the House of Lords, is practically certain of a safe passage to the Statute Book. The Bill is expected to come into force next month.

It will contain the following provisions:

(1) Every moneylender will be compelled to make a deposit of 15 per cent on annual income of $15, in respect of each of his offices; (2) Moneylenders' circulars are declared illegal unless asked for; (3) Moneylenders may advertise only in a specified form; (4) Moneylenders may not employ gamblers (louts) or agents.

Home Of the Cave Men

Evidence That Scotland Was Inhabited in Prehistoric Times

Evidence that Scotland was inhabited by cave men in the early days of the old stone age has been obtained at the recent excavation in caves of northern Scotland.

James E. Clegg, who directed researches in four caves, under a great tract of the Royal Society of London, has reported the discovery of two human skeletons in connection with bones of bears and other animals of glacial climates.

Further evidence of man's occupation of the caves in ancient times was found in the remains of a great number of bones of reindeer horns, antlers and scratches by human beings, and bits of charcoal which were found in the hearths.

These finds are the first indication that there were any human beings in Scotland as far back as the Paleolithic era, which ended some 10,000 years ago.

Canada's great background of prairies has been treated too often as a stage for a mere Punch and Judy show."

It is still hoped by officials here to have some experimental flights made during the coming fall, probably in time to have definite information upon which to call for tenders next spring. The experimental work is a matter of arrangement between the Postmaster Department and the Department of National Defense.

Artist Goes To Arctic

Takes Long Trip To Paint a Sketch Scene in the Northland

A. Jackson, Toronto artist, has left Toronto on his trip to Cape Harbor, Ellesmere Island, 750 miles south of the pole, where he intends to paint and make sketches.

"The reason why I am going to paint in the far north," Mr. Jackson says, "is because I think the ordinary pastoral painting, as practised now, needs a new idea. New art forms are needed and the world would develop, I think, if new art values in the north were developed."

"Fresh inspiration and freedom from convention are necessary to develop individuality," he said.

"Those who follow in the old pastoral tradition must necessarily relate it to that of the European schools, and be imitative, because it lacks originality."
